GÒ CARO is a non-profit organization located in Marostica (Veneto) the renowned "City of Chess" of the Italian peninsula.

The organization operates in close collaboration with the educational farm "Fattoria Togonegro" and within other entities present on the local territory, that share the objective of providing distinctive educational and non-formal activities that surpass the boundaries of traditional European cooperatives.

Established in 2024, GÒ CARO is devoted to cultivating social and cultural awareness among a diverse array of stakeholders, encompassing young people, youth workers, trainers, educators, migrants, women, and adult citizens. The organization pursues this objective through a multifaceted approach grounded in ecological principles and non-formal education, with a particular emphasis on equity, sustainable practices and experiential learning.

The objectives of GÒ CARO reflect its commitment to:

- Promote European values: the organization promotes the creation of European networks aimed at implementing projects at the European level in the fields of education, training, mental and physical health, and technological innovation.
- Foster lifelong learnings: the organization firmly believes in the importance of continuous learning and provides opportunities for citizens to expand their knowledge and skills throughout their lives. Great value is attributed to the promotion of healthy lifestyles as an integral part of the community, underscoring the benefits of physical well-being and the habit of leading a sustainable life.
- Develop Non-Formal education activities and promote Critical Thinking: the organization offers a wide range of non-formal educational activities that encourage active participation, critical thinking, and experience-based learning.
- Cooperate in the Field of Youth: The organization collaborates with entities and bodies that have among their objectives the professional inclusion, the European dimension, and the development of young collectives.
- Support Eco-Feminism and Friendly Methodologies: Strong emphasis is placed on the use of environmentally-conscious approaches, such as eco-construction, water recycling, rainwater harvesting, and agroforestry.
- Foster Community Engagement: the organization offers a space where people can come together, cultivating a sense of community and collaboration.
- Facilitate Communication and Freedom of Press: ensuring open and accessible communication channels allows these various stakeholders to voice their perspectives, concerns, and ideas.
- Promote Research, Technology Development, and Social Innovation: The organization provides advice and technical and operational support to businesses and entities interested in participating in various European Union programs.
- Promote Seasonal Food Cultivation: the organization encourages individuals to engage in self-reliant practices, growing their own food in harmony with the natural rhythms of the seasons.
- Develop Sports-Related Projects: The organization develops projects related to outdoor sports, particularly grassroots sports.

The primary target groups of GÒ CARO include:

- ★ Young people up to 30 years of age
